

Esmée Fairbairn Foundation

Grants made in 2006:

Cross-programme grants

Family Service Unit Scotland (FSUS) - £100,000

Towards the salary and costs of a director and finance officer to enable FSUS to maintain, sustain and develop its work with hard to reach children at risk of school exclusion, across Scotland. Funded jointly by Education and Social Change: Enterprise and Independence.

Gemin-i.org - £100,000

Towards the costs of refining and rolling out an educational social enterprise to improve global communication and understanding between schools. Funded jointly by Education and Social Change: Enterprise and Independence.

PeaceMaker - £153,481

Towards the salary of a peer education training officer to expand programmes aiming to reduce discrimination and increase active citizenship for school children in Oldham. Funded jointly by Education and Social Change: Enterprise and Independence.

The Runnymede Trust - £64,210

Towards project costs to analyse the implications of faith schools for community cohesion and good race relations. Funded jointly by Education and Social Change: Enterprise and Independence.

Total value of grants: £417,691

Number of grants: 4