

How to find us

By underground

Green Park tube (Jubilee, Piccadilly and Victoria lines) is nearest – about 200 metres away.

Choose the exit marked Buckingham Palace. Turn right along Piccadilly through the Ritz Arcade and first right into Arlington Street. At the end is a concealed flight of steps leading to Park Place; our office is virtually opposite.

Level access to Park Place is available via St. James's Street. From Green Park tube station walk along Piccadilly, past Arlington Street, turn right into St. James's Street and second right into Park Place. The office is halfway along on the left.

By bus

The following buses run from mainline train stations to Green Park tube:

Victoria Station	– No.8, No.38
Liverpool Street Station	– No.8
Charing Cross Station	– No.9
Kings Cross Station	– No.10 to Tottenham Court Rd, then No.19 to Green Park
Waterloo Station	– No.211 to Victoria, then No.8 to Green Park
Paddington Station	– No.15 to Piccadilly Circus (about 500 metres away and buses travel regularly along Piccadilly).

Other buses which stop at Green Park are:
 No. 14 – Putney Heath to Tottenham Court Road
 No. 22 – Putney Common to Piccadilly Circus
 No.38 – Clapton to Victoria

By car/motorbike/bicycle

St. James's Street and Arlington Street are one-way streets with no access from Piccadilly. From Piccadilly Circus go down Haymarket, turn right into Pall Mall and at the far end of Pall Mall turn right into St. James Street. Park Place is 3rd on the left. There is limited car parking outside our office (6 meters which currently cost £1.00 for 15 minutes). There is also an NCP car park (£13.50 for 3 hours) in Arlington Street. For the car park turn 4th left into Bennet Street from St. James's Street, then left to the end of Arlington Street. There is free parking space for motorcycles on Park Place and we have a space at our office where you can leave bicycles.

The Foundation is located within the Central London Congestion Charging Zone. Where appropriate, visitors to the Foundation are encouraged to use public transport.

11 Park Place
 London SW1A 1LP
 020 7297 4700